

Hello,

What do you desire in an aircraft mechanic position? High pay? Flexible Schedule? Freedom?

INTRODUCTION

My name is Aircraft Owners Name, I own/operate a Year/Make/Model Aircraft aircraft out of the Airport's Name/Identifier Airport. I'm looking for an aircraft mechanic who can help me from time to time with aircraft maintenance. Would you be interested?

WHAT I'M SEEKING

I'm seeking an aircraft mechanic who can perform general aircraft maintenance on my Aircraft Make/Model. The maintenance to be performed includes routine maintenance, inspections, and repairs. I'm only interested in a win-win arrangement, as I'm looking to create a long lasting relationship that is beneficial to both parties.

As for tooling, we can work together to obtain the necessary aircraft manuals, and specialty tooling needed. This arrangement would be flexible, and pay is negotiable. If this opportunity works out well, I'd have no issue recommending you to other aviators I know in the industry.

BENEFIT TO YOU

All successful relationships require a win-win situation, which is why I would like to keep all arrangement details negotiable. The highlights of this position are:

- Higher Pay Rates
- Freedom
- Flexible Scheduling

Let me give an example of a typical maintenance need and expectation. The engine oil needs changed on the Aircraft Make/Model. It's due in 5 tach hours. I would reach out to you, and inform you of the oil change coming due. You would then accomplish this oil change whenever it fits your schedule as long as the oil change is completed within a couple of weeks.

NEXT STEPS IF YOUR INTERESTED

I've sent this letter out to multiple mechanics in the area, and I'm looking to find 1 go to mechanic. If you're interested contact me at your earliest convenience. I'm not sure when the position will be filled and encourage you to reach out if you have any questions or would like to discuss this opportunity further.

Feel free to contact me anytime to discuss. Acceptable forms of contact include Acceptable Forms Of Contact From Online Form.
